

COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS - SERIES LAUNCH

Tuesday, March 23 at 1:30p.m.
Six Tower Place, Albany

The Community Foundation for the Greater Capital Region is pleased to announce a series of invitation-only events that will offer guests an exclusive opportunity to hear about pressing community issues, and learn what is being done to address them.

The series, Community Conversations, will launch at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 23, 2010 at the Community Foundation, Six Tower Place, Albany, New York.

The first program, Community Coalitions for Change, will focus on local coalitions addressing issues related to youth and families. Our presentations will be from the organizations and people working collaboratively on the Bigelow Corners Project in Schenectady and the Harlem Children's Zone/Baby College Project in Albany.

If you are interested in learning about various opportunities to make an impact in the community, curious about innovative practices, or eager to talk with other Community Foundation donors and staff, please attend!

This is NOT an opportunity for organizations to solicit donations or to make a sales pitch; rather, the goal of this event is to engage donors in meaningful discussion on community issues and programs.

At the Community Foundation, our goal is to promote philanthropy in the region by connecting people who care with the issues that matter to them.

Please join us for a cup of coffee and conversation about our community!

Please advise Libby Guglin of your plans to attend:
