

is pleased to announce

THE RUTH GOLDSTEIN MEMORIAL MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP - 2010

The Community Foundation

The Community Foundation for the Greater Capital Region is an independent, non-profit, publicly-supported, tax-exempt organization founded in 1968 to meet the existing and future needs of the Capital Region's educational, health, cultural, civic and charitable organizations. The Community Foundation's scope goes beyond social service and welfare; its purpose is to improve the overall quality of life in the Capital Region.

The Community Foundation administers a variety of charitable funds. Recognizing the importance of scholarships, especially with decreasing dollars for education at the federal level and increasing educational costs for students, the Foundation is pleased to administer the Ruth Goldstein Memorial Music Scholarship Fund, which is described below.

The Ruth Goldstein Memorial Music Scholarship Fund

Ruth Goldstein was an extraordinary teacher of woodwind instruments and piano. She maintained a culturally diverse studio of private students of all ages who were united and inspired by her passion for music.

Ruth was born on May 13, 1923. She began her musical studies at a very young age by asking her mother for piano lessons. Over the years she learned to play every woodwind instrument as well as piano and harpsichord. She attended the High School of Music and Art in New York, NY, where she studied music theory and performance, and she graduated from Queens College with a degree in Music. She continued her studies with Steven Maxym, principal bassoon of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra.

After graduating, Ruth began teaching woodwind and piano students in New York City, New Jersey, and Long Island. She taught music in public and private schools in the New York City area. Ruth also taught privately in North Carolina before moving to Albany in 1981.

Ruth performed frequently on various instruments. She played harpsichord with the Albany Symphony Orchestra and was a founding member of numerous chamber groups in New York and North Carolina. She played clarinet and bassoon with the Schenectady Symphony Orchestra and the Great Neck Symphony Orchestra, and appeared regularly as the piano and harpsichord accompanist for her colleagues. Ruth's love of music could be seen in her extensive collection of instruments and her three harpsichords, which inspired many spontaneous evenings of chamber music with fellow musicians and friends.

Ruth taught privately in the Capital District until her untimely death in 2003. For many years she accompanied students in the annual Chinese Community Center concerts, and was the only teacher in the Capital District to have students chosen to play in the Empire State Youth Orchestra on three different instruments - clarinet, bassoon and oboe. Ruth was devoted to her students, and she traveled widely to hear them perform after they had gone on to college and career. Her love of music lives on in her students who continue to make music from Maine to Arizona.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Applicant must be a graduating senior of a Capital Region high school (Albany, Rensselaer, Saratoga, or Schenectady County).
2. Applicant must be continuing musical studies, preferably in music education or performance in the woodwind family or piano.
3. Applicant must have demonstrated academic achievement.
4. Applicant must demonstrate financial need.
5. Applicant must have been accepted to either a two or four year college or university.

Selection Process:

1. All scholarship applications must be completed in full and submitted to The Community Foundation for the Capital Region by April 30, 2010.
