

CHARITABLE FUNDS

Make a difference with your Charitable IRA

Annually, people age 70½ and older can transfer up to $100,000 from individual retirement accounts (IRAs) to charity—without incurring federal income taxes today or estate and income taxes in the future.

The Community Foundation for the Greater Capital Region Strengthening Our Community Through Philanthropy

IRA transfers to the Community Foundation for the Greater Capital Region can help our region's nonprofit organizations address a broad range of current and future needs. The Community Foundation evaluates all aspects of community well-being—arts and culture, community development, education, environment, health and human services—and awards strategic grants and provides additional guidance to select projects and programs.

Community Impact Funds Creating greater results through collective action.

The Community Foundation is at the heart of nonprofit work in our region, and is committed to having a transformational impact in our community. IRA transfers to Community Impact Funds allow donors to maximize their charitable impact by joining with existing resources and strategic partnerships to make a real difference. Through this collective grant making, the Community Foundation has produced impact in many areas, including homelessness and housing, early childhood care and education and in helping to build capacity within our region's nonprofit agencies.

Designated Fund Helping local organizations sustain and grow.

IRA transfers to Designated Funds allow you to support the good work of a specific nonprofit organization—a senior center, museum or any qualifying nonprofit charitable organization.

Purpose: support one qualifying nonprofit organization

Custom Fund

We're happy to work with you to establish the unique charitable fund that accomplishes your financial and philanthropic goals.

The above funds qualify for charitable distributions from individual retirement accounts (IRAs) as outlined in Sec. 408(d)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; others may qualify as well. Gifts to Donor Advised Funds, Supporting Organizations and most private foundations do not qualify for special charitable IRA transfers.
